Mr. Hugh S. Cumming, Jr.
Director, Bureau of Intelligence and Research
Department of State
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Cumming,

On behalf of the USIB Committee on Procurement of Foreign Publications I should like to make a matter of record our appreciation of the excellent performance of Mr. Harry G. Barnes, Jr. as Publications Officer in Moscow during the period October 1956 to January 1959.

Mr. Barnes' imaginative handling of the assignment made certain the prompt acquisition of Russian publications very necessary to the intelligence process. His record reflects great credit upon himself and the Foreign Service.

Sincerely yours,

25X1A9a

Chairman, Committee on Procurement of Foreign Publications
